Claims 1 to 3 are pending.

Oath/Declaration

1. The oath or declaration is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application by application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because:
It was not executed in accordance with either 37 CFR 1.66 or 1.68.
37 CFR § 1.4 dictates that an s-signature must be between forward slashes.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 2 and 3 are objected to because of the following informalities: claim 2 - lines 2, 5, and 6, "the said" is redundant. Claim 2 - line 3, "the semiconductor substrate" lacks proper antecedent basis. Claim 3 also includes the "the said" language.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ju et al (U.S. 5,079,663). Ju discloses a magnetoresistive strip 20 and a plurality of electrodes 14,16,18 distributed along the length of the strip and separated by insulating layers 30 (column 6 – lines 9 and 10). The insulating layers may take the form of a dielectric such as aluminum oxide (column 5 – lines 60 and 61).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Carr et al (U.S. 5,552,706) in view of Ju et al. Carr discloses a magnetoresistive strip 20 and a plurality of electrodes 41-46 distributed along the length of the strip.

Carr does not expressly disclose his electrodes as being separated by insulating material layers.

Ju discloses his electrodes as being separated by insulating material layers.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to separate the electrodes of Carr with layers of insulating material as taught by Ju. The motivation would have been: to prevent shorting out of electrodes and/or to protect the electrodes and/or to provide a more level upper surface in case additional layers were to be formed on the electrodes.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 2 and 3 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
